A SATURDAY NIGHT ROW.

Wash." Zoeckler Assaults Patrick Rengedy in a Saloon is Fulton. "Wash." Zoechler Assanits Patrick Bienaedy in a Saloon in Fulton. On last Saturday night a disturbance occurred at a saloon in Fulton, one mile from this city, on the Nationalpike, between "Wash." Zoekler and Patrick Kennedy, from the result of which (it is supposed) Patrick Kennedy died on Wednesday morning. The row occurred at about 10 o'clock Saturday night. It seems that Kennedy was in Otto Roedeger's saloon and Zoeckler eame in and, in a very boisterous manner, declared his ability to whip any man in the room, and insulted several persons therein, who paid no attention to his bravado. The saloon keeper requested him to be quiet, which had no effect. Kennedy was laboring man, and he had on old tothes; and while standing near Zoeckler, the latter remarked that he would "be damned if Kennedy should stand so close to him, for his (Zoeckler's teleplace would he gressed !! should stand so close to him, for hi Zoeckler's) clothes would be greased. rds then ensued between the two Zoe kler suddenly seized a chai and in a short time walked arou oom, apparently all right. I was not cut, and it was not so perfectly familiar with it, and was able to walk without any assistance. Imnediately after the occurrence, Mr. Rodeger put Zosckler out of his saloon, and he went away. The following day Rennedy was conveyed in a buggy to his home in Wheeling, where, as we have stated, he died Wednesday morning.

Other parties state (the truth which, of course and the truth the water cores.

when under the influence of liquor, which is very frequent.
These two men were sequalntances, and had had no trouble before this. It is also stated that the two went into Roedeger's salcon together. They were both young men, Kennedy being about twenty-eight years of age, and Zoeckler twenty-three.

The row has been kept very quiet until yesterday, the friends of both sides seeming desirous of maintaining secrecy.

Zoeckler has not yet been arrested. [Since the above was in type we have eard a street rumor that Kendedy is ot dead.]

Mr. Isaac Corrs, Sz., comes out in a card in yesterday morning's issue of the Register in which he charges the proprietors of this paper with mallelously refusing to withdraw the statement published in our issue of Monday that W. J. Cotts had been taken to Nashville under arrest, as an accomplice in the late government frands perpetrated in that Department. It is true that Mr. Issac Cotts asked that the statement be withdrawn on his unsupported statement that his son had only been taken as witness, but it is not true that we promised to do so unless the progress of the case, which we are closely watching, should develop the fact that W. J. Cotts was not implicated in the frauds now under process of investigation. We copied the statement from the Nashville Union, a paper which has no in-Union, a paper which has no in-in misstaling the case. We are to substantiate the truth of the ement that he was arrested, but and desire to enter into the merits gam't M'CLELLAN.

THINYES "IN WOLFE'S CLOTHING."
Wednesday night some burglars entered the tailor shop of Mr. Wolfe, on Market street, opposite the McLure House, and abstracted therefrom between one hundred and fifty and one hundred and seventy-five dollars worth of clothing, all of which belonged to customers of Mr. Wolfe. The this was effected an entrance by means of bering and cutting out a hole in the side of the house large enough to admit a man. They took a brace and bifrom a carpenter's tool box, at Oti's new building, on Main street, and they forgot to replace it after finishing their work. After getting into the tailor shop they forced the lock on a wardrobe where most of the clothes were kept.

Examination of Trisier.—An examination of Trisier, who was arrested in Cincinnati and with whom was found goods stolen from Mr. Wilde, was had before Alderman Johnson yesterday. Three valies were opened, which came to this city by express two or three days ago, and the clothing takes from the Home Insurance office was found therein, together with many other articles, and a number of letters belonging to Tressler. Goods were identified by both Mr. Wilde and Mr. Hubbard, the sufferers from the theft. Alderman Johnson held the prisoner over until this afternoon at 5 o'clock, when he will have a further examination.

tefore the police court yesterday morning.

Emanuel Dixon, for assault and battery, was fined $1 and costs.

Mary Banks, (colored) for disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs. "Moble" was very angry, and bolsterously asserted her ability to "whip any 'darkey' in de city."

The case of Charles Sweeney, for assault and pattery, was continued until this morning.

We gave the name of Elizabeth Dorsey, the other morning, which should have been Elizabeth Downey.

RIVER NEWS.—There were about eight feet water in the channel yesterday.

There was not anything unusual to note, unless it be that a gunboat, that had been in the rebel service, passed up with a tow.

THE LECTURE LAST NIGHT.—There was a highly select and attentive audience at Washington Hall last evening, to listen to the lecture of Rev. Dr. Schenck, of Baltimore, delivered under the auspices of the Library Association.

Our old friend Joseph Miller, late conductor on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, having become impressed with the belief that the community needs cleaning, has interested himself in the Washing Machine business. A good machine in good hands.

Other pariles state (the truth of which, of course, cannot be known until an examination is had,) that Kennedy was standing at the bar waiting for a glass of beer he had ordered, and Zoeckler came in and ordered a drick, insultingly remarking to Kennedy that he "could wait till his betters were served." No account of the affair, that we have heard, attributes any blame of the said occurrence to Kennedy.

Patrick Kennedy formerly lived at the Bethany foll-gate, which his mother (a widow) kept, he working in the vicinity at farming. A short time ago they removed to East Wheeling. When Kennedy went into the saidoon, it is asserted, his hand was badly burt, bleeding profusely. Towards dusk, Saturday afternoon, he fell out of a buggy going down the hill toward Fulton, and it is also said that he was run over, and some of his ribs broken.
